

COMMERCIAL CLUB ADDS 29 MEMBERS

Board of Governors Approves
Awarding Contract for Fine Furniture.

ANNEXATIONS ARE FAVORED

COMMITTEE WILL AID TOWNS
WANTING TO BE PART OF CITY.

The board of governors of the Commercial club found its meeting yesterday of unusual importance in the various matters presented to the members. There was the matter of passing upon the furnishings committee's award for the interior decoration and fitting up of the new club building; the acceptance of 29 new members of the club; and the action taken, which will interest the club as a body, in the endeavor to extend the limits of Salt Lake to include a number of the suburban towns that are now seeking the benefits of metropolitan association.

The furnishings committee presented a report detailing their action in awarding the contract for the interior decoration and furnishing of the first four floors of the new building, at a cost of over $30,000, as told in yesterday's Herald-Republican. In the submission of the report, Samuel Newhouse, a member of the committee, summed up the opinion of his co-workers in the board, emphatically stating that the new home of the club would be one of the most handsome in the United States when the contract was completed. The action of the committee was approved by unanimous vote of the board of governors.

The suggestion that the Commercial club take an active part in the endeavor to extend the city by including the suburban towns, before the next census in 1910, was received with favor by the board, and the matter referred to the committee on promotion, of which W. P. Cooper, an ardent "extensionist," is chairman. The committee will submit a report to the board at the next meeting, and outline some definite plan of action.

Twenty-Nine New Names.
The twenty-nine names added to the membership roll, two of which were re-instatements, were: George D. Blood, machine engineer; William Bowen, manager Crane company; Charles G. Carlson, jr., Utah Ice & Storage company; Walter Farmer of Brookline, Mass., mining; W. H. Rowe, Corinne, Utah, orchardist; W. H. Cunningham, manager Continental life insurance company; L. G. Dinwoody, Dinwoody Furniture company; Frank Doran, contractor; John Dorius, real estate and builder; A. J. Gillis, contractor; Nels G. Hall, assistant manager Utah Savings & Trust company; I. C. Morton, Haer Bros. Mercantile company; J. A. Johnson, Johnson Corbin Sheet Metal Works; Al McKee, jr., Home Hardware company; E. A. Midgley, Midgley Bros. Plumbing company; Dr. James B. McNamany, dentist; A. N. Mc-

Kay, promotion; Angus McKellar, jr., real estate; Joel Nibley, attorney; A. E. H. Peterson, vice president Peterson Real Estate & Investment company; O. E. Peterson, president and treasurer Peterson Real Estate & Investment company; Fred J. Rieger, merchant; Orson J. Ruess, public accountant; Thomas V. Sloan, assistant manager Utah Savings & Trust company; S. W. Taylor, undertaker; S. R. Thurman, attorney; Bonner K. Smith and A. B. Irvine.

At the meeting Samuel Newhouse tendered his check for $200 towards the Fisher Harris home fund, increasing the total subscriptions to date to $3,200. The matter of the annual banquet of the club, usually held during Christmas week, was discussed, but after considerable consideration it was decided to postpone the event this season until the new club home is occupied, when the affair will be held in the nature of a "rat home."

SUIT IS A MISTRIAL.

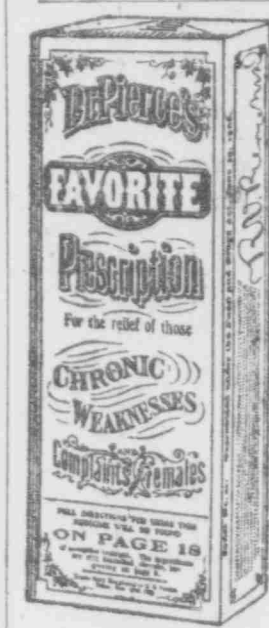

Foundry Company Must Pay Costs of Its Case.

Judge T. D. Lewis of the district court yesterday decided that the suit of the Utah Foundry & Machine company against the Utah Foundry & Machine company was a mistrial because of arguments made to the jury by George M. Sullivan, attorney for the foundry company. Costs were taxed to the plaintiff. The foundry company brought suit for $25.99 for materials furnished the gas company between December, 1907, and May, 1908.

PROSPEROUS VAGRANTS MUST LEARN TO TOIL

One goes to the Chain Gang and
Other to County Jail—Others
Get "Floaters."

There are two distinct classes of vagrants, according to Judge J. M. Bowman of the police court, and they can be distinguished as No. 1 and No. 2. No. 1 is the class that is proud of itself as a class and its greatest interest in life seems to be publishing the fact that it is avoiding work.

Class No. 2 did not fare well in police court yesterday. Only two representatives of class 2 were present, and one of these, William Riley, drew six months in jail for contemptuous disregard of the law which provides that every man shall have some visible means of support.

Riley had no visible means. Added to this proven fact was the suspicion in the minds of the police that Riley had been deriving sustenance by means "invisible" to the police. It was evident that Riley was far from being on the verge of starvation, when, according to the accepted standards of vagrants, he should have been reduced to rags and a beggarly condition. Riley suffered from neither of these.

Leif Larsen, the second representative of class No. 2, had aroused no suspicion, except that he appeared to be a chronic sufferer from the hook worm disease. Larsen's ailment will be given thirty days' treatment on the chain gang. A sick and shivering vagrant to see that labor is well performed, have been known to put crimps in all the different varieties of work.

Class No. 1 is always well represented in police court and yesterday was no exception. When, by reason of circumstances, which he cannot control, a man is "down and out," then, according to Judge Bowman, travel is the best antidote for the man himself and the welfare of the city.

Six members of class No. 1 were advised as to the shortest route out of the city and given twenty-four hours to find the corporate limits. Today sentences of ninety days were imposed, but none of class No. 1 in police court yesterday will be represented today. Others of the same class, however, are in the city, and the game will go on throughout the winter months. In the meantime, many cases of hook worm disease will be given chain gang treatment.

PROVES IT IS WHISKY.

Chief of Police's Secretary Takes a Drink Before Testifying.

"G-u-r-g-l-e, gurgle-gug-gug."

That was actual testimony offered in court yesterday afternoon and attorneys for the defense in the case of the city against J. M. Doull, charged with violating the liquor license ordinance, objected strenuously to the chief of police's secretary demonstrating the quality of a bottle of liquor in open court. The man on the witness stand was instructed by Prosecuting Attorney E. A. Rogers to taste of the contents of the bottle and give his opinion. He did so and graduated into the "gurgling" stage before the attorneys for the defense objected and even the prosecuting attorney grew suspicious.

Herman Bauer, secretary to Chief of Police S. M. Barlow, testified that the bottle was the one which he had purchased at the J. M. Doull drug store, No. 13 South Main street, October 21. He had taken the bottle after it was unsealed by Prosecutor Rogers and took a good pull, after which he announced that it was good whisky. Testimony was offered to show that Chief Barlow and Secretary Bauer had sealed the bottle on the date of its purchase. Doull was found guilty by the police court jury and time for sentence was fixed for Thursday afternoon.

PICKING OUT JURORS.

Commissioners Picking Out Men Who Will Serve Coming Year.

Jury lists for 1910 are now in the process of formation, and will be completed by December 15, when 1,500 names will have been copied into the county clerk's books and the directory for jury service in the Third district court during the year soon to start.

William J. Horne and Edward D. Miller, both former members of the board of county commissioners, are the jury commissioners and have now fairly started on their work in one of the wings of the county clerk's office. Mr. Miller was one of the commissioners in the jury work last year.

Four names are taken from every 100 votes cast during the last election and the work must be finished by December 15. Last year there were 1,515 names placed on the jury lists and this year there will be about 1,700.

SCHOOL ROOMS COLD.

Janitors Say Quality of Fuel Is Below Standard.

Reports that inferior coal is being delivered at a number of the city schools have reached members of the board of education and an investigation is being made. It is said that janitors at the Washatch, Franklin, Fremont, Jackson and Sumner schools have not been able to bring the temperature above 60 degrees, and they have laid the blame to the quality of the coal. It may be that some of the furnaces need cleaning, according to some of the board members, but this is doubted, as they were all overhauled during the summer vacation.

WATCHMAN DENIES GUILT

Charged With Having Killed Greek in Railroad Yards.

Charles Nelson, a watchman employed by the Denver & Rio Grande railroad at Bingham, entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of manslaughter when arraigned before Judge T. D. Lewis of the district court yesterday and his trial will be set later. He is charged with having killed Steve Chathis at Bingham on October 23, last. It is claimed Nelson saw the Greek loafing about the railroad yards, tried to stop him, and fired when the foreigner ran. The shot inflicted a mortal wound, as Chathis died in Salt Lake on November 3.

Frank Clark pleaded not guilty and his trial will be held later. He is charged with having stolen surgical tools from the automobile of Dr. J. R. Robinson on October 23.

FILES $70,000 MORTGAGE

Commercial Block Association Takes Over Title to Building.

Through an instrument filed in the office of the county recorder yesterday, the ground at the northwest corner of Second South and Commercial streets and the six-story building on it were mortgaged by the Commercial Block association to the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company for $70,000. The mortgage runs for five years and bears interest at 5 percent. The instrument is dated October 30, 1909, and is signed by W. F. Noble, vice president of the Commercial Block association. A quit-claim deed was filed for the same property, transferring it from John W. Donnellan and wife to the Commercial Block association for a consideration of $1, the price of the filing.

MURRAY BREVITIES.

Under the auspices of the Jordan High school a number of public lectures and entertainments will be given throughout the county. During last year several of the little towns south of Salt Lake were visited by the faculty and students of the school, and were assisted by well known educators from Salt Lake and Provo, and the lectures were very popular and will be continued this winter.

The capital of the Miller-Caboon company at Murray has been increased from $50,000 to $500,000. Besides their business at Murray, the company has branches in several of the principal cities in the state.

Bowel Tonic For Old Folks Free

No matter how sound and healthy old people are they still suffer with their bowels. The machinery of the system doesn't work as it did when they were young and active. But while you can't restore youth, you can help age to live more pleasantly.

That a laxative is needed every little while by people as they get around 50 and beyond, there is no doubt, but it is important which laxative is taken. Old people, women and all, except those who are in the prime of life, should avoid anything that gives a shock to the system, which at that age is but a temporary expedient. Among these are pills and cathartic tablets, salts and purgative waters. They are too strong and only do temporary good. Not only that, but they really bind the bowels next day.

What you want is something that will regulate the bowels and again get them in the habit of performing a certain function at a certain time, while at the same time toning and strengthening the muscles of the stomach and bowels. Such a remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and you have never used it, let the doctor send you a sample bottle free of charge. In this way you can try it without cost. All druggists sell it at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and those who have used it will continue to buy it. It is pleasant to take, very effective and very economical as a household remedy, as all the family can use it. But Dr. Caldwell is eager to have all readers unacquainted with it to send for a free sample.

Thousands of old people and heads of families are never without it, for in this way they cure and avoid constipation, liver trouble, indigestion, sour stomach, sick headache, sleeplessness after eating, belching and similar stomach, liver and bowel disturbances. Mrs. Tillie Homan, 401 Waukegan street, Knoxville, Tenn., and P. H. Marshall, Nall, Okla., as well as thousands of others, attribute much of their present good health to this grand remedy.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. H. Caldwell, P. O. 518, Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

HALF MILLION IN BUILDING PERMITS

November Record Proves That Great Activity in Construction Still Continues.

With the closing of the books of Building Inspector A. B. Hirth yesterday, November's record was made, and it fell nearly 50 per cent behind that of November, 1908. The record for the month just closed was $338,400, as against $685,500 for the corresponding month last year. During the month there were 118 permits issued.

November last year showed the best record of any month and it was hardly expected that the same month of this year would be on a par with it. Several permits for large buildings will likely be issued this month, however, and the building inspector looks for December to far outstrip the corresponding month of last year, when permits amounting to $471,000 were issued. It is expected this will be doubled. Owing to the building boom and activity in real estate it is believed that at almost any time now some large land owner in the business district will take out permits for a number of large buildings.

The permits yesterday amounted to $76,000 and pulled the total for the month above the half-million-dollar mark. The permits issued yesterday were:

Hamilton Realty company, 237 First avenue, three-story brick apartment house, $29,000.
E. M. West, 702-704-706 Ninth avenue, one-story store and cottage, $3,000.
J. M. Lyon, 284 Ninth avenue, one-story brick cottage, $3,000.
Burt & Carlquist, 632 East Sixth South street, one-story five-room brick cottage, $2,000.
Granite Investment company, 1133 Browning avenue, five-room brick cottage, $2,000.
G. E. Green, 226-S Q street, two permits for six-room brick cottages, $3,000 each, $6,000.
